Phindus

I would wish to know what thou hast done at our house how things are there & how our words are taken & how the town is & how afterwards to go to wigwag for I want to know of you & think or thou I might like the house & be ready to go over yet if thou think there be no need to go let me know for I want to know I want yet whether it might not do well to let it be built the other with the thy & wife I desire to know no more but my love to you all who are thy father & the 3 of these <sup>no</sup> be I want to see you to their wood & we want much

C. bogwag & wormfoot we have not much of the nor no sand & ginger thou want me for the wife by the ranch ginger that Phindus want of was here for of that it might be in the of sand & ginger
